LISTENING TEST

29th JANUARY 2015

Welcome to the Listening component of OKTV.

The listening material is recorded on this CD, and the tasks and instructions are printed in your test booklet.

There will be three tasks, and the recordings will be played twice. Before listening to each recording, you will be given some time to read the instructions and to look at the task in your test booklet.

Please note that the first item in each task (marked with a tick [✓]) is always an example.

(YOUR CODE)

In this section you will hear a dialogue between a mother and her son.

- Your task is to answer the questions with the corresponding information from the recording.
- First, you will have some time to look at the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.
- Then you will hear the recording again in shorter sections.

✓ Where does the dialogue take place?

.....In the kitchen of the speaker's mom.....

1. What kind of fish did his mom make?

.....

2. What did she mix in to make it a bit more crunchy?

.....

3. Why does she say her son should eat fish?

.....

4. What do the healthiest people eat less of than fish?

.....

5. Why is it dangerous to overdo fish?

.....

6. Why isn't the speaker worried about his test results?

.....

7. Why does his mom say he should still be worried?

.....

8. Why doesn't his mom accept his answer that he doesn't like the dish she prepared?

.....

9. What other fish does she ask him about?

.....

10. What is his mom's problem with the way he is dressed?

.....

11. What is his reason for not giving in to his mom's persuasion this time?

.....

12. Why couldn't they eat at the restaurant they went to first?

.....

13. Where did his mom suggest they should go instead?

.....

That is the end of TASK 1.

TASK 2

In this section, you will hear Brother David Miller, a member of the De La Salle Brothers, a Christian teaching order in Australia, talking about his mission as a Brother.

- Your task is to decide whether the following statements are 'true', 'false' or 'we do not know because the text does not say', and write the appropriate letter in the boxes on the right. Write 'A' if the statement is true, 'B' if the statement is false, or 'C' if the text does not say.
- First, you will have some time to look at the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.
- Then, after a short pause, you will hear the recording again in shorter sections.

A = TRUE

B = FALSE

C = THE TEXT DOES NOT SAY

✓ Brother David has been with the De La Salle Brothers for 50 years now.

B

14. As a senior student he was seriously interested in global environmental issues.

15. He decided to work for Boys Town to earn some money in the school holidays.

16. His experience in the boy's home facility made him keenly aware of the dreadful ordeals a lot of young people go through.

17. He finds it quite difficult to choose one or two outstandingly interesting cases.

18. He is the principal of a secondary school for socially disadvantaged children.

19. Most people do not even notice the things he considers most important about his work.

20. The kid whose father died in the holidays seriously underperformed in his studies.

21. The young drug addict lived with his mother after the death of this father.

22. He found the case of the drug addict particularly challenging because he found the nice kid's situation quite hopeless.

23. Now his drug addict protégé is studying at university.

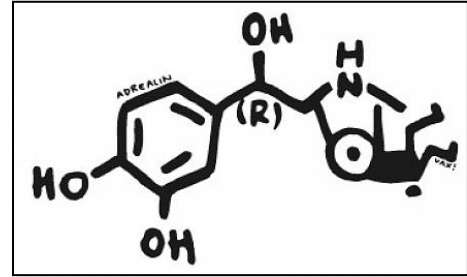

24. In a few weeks, Brother David is likely to attend a court hearing.

That is the end of TASK 2.

TASK 3

In this section, you will hear a short lecture about adrenaline.

- Your task is to complete the sentences with the exact words you hear on the recording.
- First, you will have some time to look at the task, and then we will play the whole recording in one piece.
- Then, after a short pause, you will hear the recording again in shorter sections.

Whenever you go to a theme park do you head straight for the (✓)roller-coasters.....?

Well, you may be craving adrenaline. Hi, I'm Peter Kennedy and this is "What is adrenaline?"

Adrenaline is a (25), it's a hormone, a neurotransmitter, and it's a kind of thing that helps carry information. Adrenaline is responsible for what you might have heard as being the (26)
..... You know, when your best friend is (27) on you, sneaks up from behind you and scares you to death, and you feel that (28), you feel your (29) Well, it's your body getting ready to either fight or to flee, and adrenaline is responsible for that. Adrenaline primarily helps more oxygenated blood (30)

Obviously that's what's going to be needed to run away using your leg muscles or if you're going to (31) using your arm muscles.

One of the other things that happens during an adrenaline rush is that since your oxygenated blood is being directed towards your muscles, it's pulled away from your skin, and that's why you (32) It's also pulled away from your (33), which is why you may feel that sort of queasy, (34) '.....' feeling.

Adrenaline: without it you can't fight and can't flee, and it's also responsible for a lot of (35) in your body. I'm Peter Kennedy and this is "What is adrenaline?"

That is the end of TASK 3. and also the end of the Listening Test.
